

IRMT Conference 2012: The Rhythm of Life

Friday 13th January

7:00 pm Registration and Conference Opening

Saturday 14th January

8:45 am Notices

9:00 am Graeme Humphrey:

“The Art of Teaching using Teacher/Pupil duets to enhance the musicality of lessons especially at the beginner stage”

10:30 am Morning tea

10:50 am Photos

11:15 am AGM

12:30 pm Lunch

1:30 pm Sarah Hoskyns:

“Enlivening our musical senses: the evidence for music in well-being and learning”

3:00 pm Afternoon Tea

3:30 pm Sponsors Presentation

4:00 pm – 6:00 pm Practical Session,

Graeme Humphrey/Christopher Norton -

“Hands on!’ A practical session in ensemble playing for mixed instruments, piano duet, and 6 hands, including improvisation”

7:30 pm Conference Dinner

(Indoor and outdoor – weather permitting)

Sunday 15th January

8:30 am Rev Rona Halsell: Reflections

8:45 am Notices

9:00 am Graeme Humphrey:

“The mystery of the dots and dashes in musical notation – what the composers really meant”

10:30 am Morning Tea

11:00 am Sarah Hoskyns:

“Sharing ideas for improvisation: playing with timbre and rhythm”

12:30 pm Lunch

1:30 pm – 3:00 pm Christopher Norton:

"Teaching improvisation - getting started, keeping going..."

Conference ends.